

Professor Hoskins G. Caddle, President of Barbados Judo Association received a decoration.

Professor Hoskins Glyne Caddle, President of Barbados Judo Association was awarded the decoration of the “Order of the Rising Sun, Gold and Silver Rays” which is considered to be a high rank award conferred by the Emperor of Japan. Professor Caddle was awarded in recognition of his contribution over the years to the dissemination of Judo in Barbados and the promotion of friendly relations between Japan and Barbados.

On December 7th 2019, Ambassador Shinada conveyed the decoration to Professor Caddle during the opening ceremony of the 19th Barbados International Judo Tournament which was held at the Garfield Sobers Gymnasium. Mrs. Sandra Osborne, President of the Barbados Olympic Association, Mr. Vlad Marinescu, Chief Media and Marketing Officer of the International Judo Federation and the participants of the tournament attended the ceremony.

Professor Caddle received the decoration and decoration diploma from Ambassador Shinada.

Ambassador Shinada and Professor Caddle

Ambassador Shinada delivering his speech

Professor Caddle delivering his speech

The 19th Barbados International Judo Tournament

