

Arrival Reception of Ambassador FUKUSHIMA

June 22, 2022

On June 22, Ambassador Fukushima held her arrival reception at a South Coast hotel to commemorate the launch of her tour of duty. There were about 130 attendees, including government ministers senators, diplomatic missions, UN representatives, academia and collaborators of civil society.

Ambassador Fukushima pronounced her commitment to make all efforts to strengthen bilateral relations by collaborating together in various fields such as climate change mitigation, disaster risk management and cultural exchanges.

Responding to the Ambassador, the Hon. Sandra Husbands, Minister of State in Foreign Trade and Business Development, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade, underscored that Japan and Barbados together will overcome common challenges, such as climate change and natural disasters, which affect island countries.
