

The Ambassador's Courtesy Call to UN Resident Coordinator to Barbados and the Eastern Caribbean and Representative of the UN Women Multi-Country Office – Caribbean

June 30, 2022

On June 30, Ambassador Fukushima paid a courtesy call to Mr. Didier Trebucq, UN Resident Coordinator to Barbados and the Eastern Caribbean. They discussed pressing issues including food security through assured supply chains in Barbados and the Caribbean.

Ambassador Fukushima also paid a courtesy call to Ms Tonni Ann Brodber, Representative of the UN Women Multi-Country Office – Caribbean. They recognized importance of gender equality for resilience building in Barbados and the Caribbean.

