

Ambassador Fukushima Delivers Speech for International Day for Rural Women

October 12, 2022

On 12 October 2022, Ambassador Fukushima delivered a speech for International Day for Rural Women, organized by UN Women Multi-Country Office - Caribbean, in line with the UN Joint Programme, "Building Effective Resilience for Human Security in Caribbean Countries: The Imperative of Gender Equality and Women Empowerment in a strengthened Agriculture (and related Small Agri-Fisheries Business) sector)", supported by the Japanese Government. The Ambassador highlighted the importance of focusing on rural women for their economic empowerment, leaving no one behind.

Ms Brodber, Representative, UN Women Multi-Country Office – Caribbean (Center L) and Ambassador Fukushima (Center R) with FAO experts.