

Ambassador Fukushima's courtesy call to the Prime Minister of Barbados

February 10, 2023

Ambassador Fukushima paid a courtesy call to Prime Minister, the Hon. Mia Mottley on February 10. They reaffirmed to work together to further strengthen the friendly relationship between both countries. They exchanged views on Japan's support for Barbados to overcome its vulnerabilities as a small island developing country against climate change and natural disasters. In addition, they shared views to promote cultural exchanges including collaboration for the Japan-CARICOM Friendship Year of 2024.

Photos credit: The Prime Minister's Office