Read Japan Project Handover Ceremony

On April 24, 2025, H.E Mr. Miyasaka, the Ambassador of Japan to Barbados and Ms. Alleyne, Principal of Barbados Community College (BCC) delivered remarks at the Handover Ceremony marking the donation of Japan-related books to BCC.

This second donation included many books focused on Japanese language learning. During the ceremony, the speakers expressed their hopes that more students would be inspired to study Japanese. They also shared their belief that the collection would not only deepen the bonds between Barbados and Japan, but also continue to spark intellectual curiosity and academic exploration among students.
