Mr. IWATA, Second Secretary delivered a presentation in a workshop hosted by UNDP

On August 28th, Mr. IWATA Shintaro, Second Secretary at the Embassy, participated in a workshop hosted by UNDP in Barbados, focused on developing knowledge products for disaster-resistant boatbuilding. The event brought together government officials, fisherfolk, and representatives from fishing NGOs. Mr. IWATA delivered a presentation titled “Disaster-Resistant Boatbuilding: Best Practices, Techniques, and Technologies,” where he outlined key techniques for disaster response and shared insights into Japan’s policies and approaches to disaster recovery.
