

Antigua and Barbuda National Day at Expo 2025 Osaka, Kansai

On September 28, we celebrated Antigua and Barbuda's National Day at Expo 2025 Osaka, Kansai. The Hon. Everly Paul Chet Greene, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Trade and Barbuda Affairs of Antigua and Barbuda, delivered the opening remarks, and performers from Antigua and Barbuda captivated the audience with drumming, steelpan music and dance. Antigua Carnival Soca Monarch, Mr. Tian Winter, also brought great excitement to the audience with his performance.

During his visit to Japan, Minister Greene held talks with Mr. IWAYA Takeshi, Minister for Foreign Affairs of Japan, and the two ministers confirmed that they would continue to make progress on bilateral cooperation that contributes to overcoming the vulnerability of small island countries and to their sustainable development.

(https://www.mofa.go.jp/press/release/pressite_000001_01700.html)

The Antigua and Barbuda Pavilion at Expo 2025 will remain open until October 13, showcasing tourism, cultural exchange, environmental protection, and economic innovation.

The Hon. Everly Paul Chet Greene, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Trade and Barbuda Affairs of Antigua and Barbuda, giving the opening remarks

Traditional dance performance

At the Antigua and Barbuda Pavilion

Mr. Tian Winter, captivating audiences with his performance

Photo by Antigua and Barbuda Tourism Authority